

Materials Access

The James Kennedy Public Library is a free public library which seeks to provide information and materials to all. As such, the library will not deny access to any library materials by any registered borrower, regardless of age, and will not label materials based on textual, visual, or audio explicitness.

Adopted 8/1988, reviewed 2/02, reviewed 1/08